[→] WELCOME TO PRAGUE!

Welcome to Prague! Whether you've just landed with plane, arrived by train, bus or car, we have very important information about how to get to the city centre using all possible types of transport, without wasting more money than it's necessary.

↓ 1. PRAGUE BY PLANE

The airport is located on the northwest edge of Prague, about 20 kilometres (12 miles) from the centre of the metropolis. Your money can be changed in the currency exchange offices or kiosks situated in the airport. Important phone numbers include +420 220 111 888 (General info line - nonstop operation) and +420 220 115 005 (Lost and Found service).

↓ HOW TO GET TO THE CITY CENTER

If you've just arrived at the airport, getting to the centre will take about twenty to thirty minutes depending on traffic (if you use a taxi or shuttle service you will find necessary information below). If you choose cheaper but less convenient public transport you have to expect fifty minutes on the road.

↓...BY PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The bus is the cheapest way to get to the city centre. The disadvantage may be that you need to buy a bus ticket paid in Czech crowns or with credit card. To get the cash, you can use ATMs in the arrival halls of the airport. Or you can buy the actual ticket directly in a kiosk or at the information counter in both arrival halls (open from 7:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.). Furthermore, in the vending machines, located next to the bus stop, or directly from the bus driver (it will cost you a few crowns more). The ticket price is 32 CZK for a transfer ticket, with which you can freely switch among bus, tram and subway for 90 minutes. On the shorter distance and duration of 30 minutes you can use the ticket for 24 CZK (with this ticket, however, it is not allowed to switch among the types of transport). If you have more luggages, you will pay 16 Czech crowns extra.

Get off at the station Veleslavín (journey from the airport to the subway takes about 15 minutes). Subway entrance is located few steps from the bus stop. The bus runs from 4:23 a.m. until 11:45 p.m. at night.

Bus runs 5:41 a.m. to 11:36 p.m. hours.

AIRPORT EXPRESS BUS

Airport Express Bus service connects the airport with the Prague's Main Railway Station and runs every 30 minutes and the journey takes about 35 minutes. You can use the Prague public transport fares or special fares: Tickets for AE can be bought only from the driver for 60 crowns (no additional charge for luggage). AE runs 5:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

TRAVELLING AT NIGHT

If you have to use public transport at night, the best option is the BUS # 510, which runs between midnight and 3:26 a.m. and connects the airport with stop at Divoká Šárka. Afterwards take the TRAM # 51 which will go to the city centre. Night BUS # 510 runs every 30 minutes.

Companies of Taxi Praha and FIX are managing the taxi service from the Václav Havel Airport. Customers can enjoy free Wi-Fi, ensured availability of cars within 5 minutes of interest order in 24 hours a day, maximally 3-years old cars, advanced language skills of drivers, friendly demeanour, maintaining cleanliness and representative wear of vehicle drivers. Labelled taxis are waiting at the Václav Havel airport in two places – at Terminal 1 at the parking lot P1 EXPRESS and at Terminal 2 at the parking lot P2 EXPRESS - departures. Prices are not burdened with airport charges and therefore are considerably lower, while maintaining a high comfort of vehicles. International trains stop at the central train station - Prague Main Railway Station. Prague, like most European cities, suffers from very heavy traffic and lack of freely available parking spaces (the street with blue coloured areas are reserved for residents and you risk stripping off your car when you park there). For over 1000 years, Prague has served as the political, cultural and economic centre of the Czech state. Having been the seat of two Holy Roman Emperors during the gothic and renaissance periods, it also had the status of the Holy Roman Empire capital. Prague's history commenced in the year 870, although evidence shows the area had been inhabited since the Stone Age. The city flourished during the 14th century, under the reign of King Charles IV, who, among other deeds, ordered the building of the famous Charles Bridge or Saint Vitus Cathedral, the oldest gothic cathedral in central Europe, and Charles University, the oldest university in central Europe. Prague was then the third-largest city in Europe. Now home to some 1.2 million inhabitants, Prague became the capital of the newly set up Czechoslovakia in 1918, with the end of WW I and the dissolution of the Austro-Hungarian Empire. In 1992, Prague's historic center became a UNESCO world heritage site, and is currently one of the world's most popular tourist destinations.

PRAŠNÁ BRÁNA

PRAGUE 1, NÁMĚSTÍ REPUBLIKY 5

The Powder Gate (Prašná brána) is a late-Gothic structure and one of the most important monuments of medieval Prague. It was here that the Royal Route began and where one of the main roads from Kutná Hora, where silver was mined into the royal treasury, led. The Powder Gate was built in place of the older Gate tower, related to the fortification of the Old Town of Prague from the time of Václav II's reign. The older tower was known as the Mountain Gate. The Powder Gate was designed largely as a representative symbol as well as a customs collection point. Its construction began in 1475. From about 1715 it served as a firepowder warehouse, hence the name 'Powder'. During the Prussia siege of Prague in 1757, the tower was considerably destroyed. Today's appearance was not acquired by the tower until 1878-1886 for a fresh look treatment, led by architect Josef Mocker. The draft was the Old Town Bridge Tower.

FACTS & INFO

CHRÁM MATKY
BOŽÍ PŘED TÝNEM

PRAGUE 1, STAROMĚSTSKÉ NÁMĚSTÍ

Mother of God Church Before Thine (Kostel Matky Boží v před Týnem) is located in the Old Town of Prague, close to Old Town Square. Its construction ran from the mid-14th century to the first decades of the 16th century.

It is among Prague's most artistically important churches, architectural and its surviving internal mobilizer. Its western front, applying towards the square, is one of Prague's most famous dominants.

STAROMĚSTSKÝ ORLOJ

PRAGUE 1, STAROMĚSTSKÉ NÁMĚSTÍ

The Old Town Square of the Old Town Orloj (Staroměstský orloj) are medieval astronomical clocks located on the south side of the Old Town Hall tower in Prague.

The first written reference to Orloj dates back to 1410. The clock is made up of several parts - apart from an astronomical and calendar plate, it is fitted with the mechanism of twelve apostles, who appear in two small windows every entire hour (9.00 - 11p.m.). In a parade of apostles, another mannequin on the sides of the clock comes alive in mechanical motion - the reaper ringing, turning the hourglass, indicating to the standing Turk that his time is up.

He's shaking his head away. Vanity and Lakomek behave similarly. The sought-after Orloj is part of the historic centre of Prague, belonging to the UNESCO list of cultural monuments.

GEEKFEST!

We have an event ahead of us that may well change the lives of every geek walking in Prague.

We didn't believe we'd see it coming, but the Czech Republic (Prague, respectively) will actually officially host the comic con. One of the most important events for geeks, which focuses on pop culture and offers star guests, eventually managed to find its way to our parts. It was natural to expect the same spectacular action that American's fans are accustomed to. Still, we hope the outcome will be as good as possible.

First of all, so that you can still catch guests for the future, and second, because of the Czech Republic itself. For something like this can put it on a whole new tourist map. And we like to!

Within the dramaturgy of National Theatre Ballet that offers the audience and fans not only the full range of titles, but also resounding names, the production of Timeless takes a very specific position. It presents legends of world ballet, choreography - which belong to the category of "must see" and as a bonus it brings contemporary production, reflecting the present right here, right now. Timeless, with its timeless name, started the great era of Filip Barankiewicz and caused a stir, just by its pulsating contrast. On one hand there is the graceful neoclassical beauty of Serenade Georg Balanchin's work, on the other hand the bold choreographic manuscript of Glen Tetley, who is generally appreciated for the passion and physicality of his work as well as the incredible productivity and the condensation of movement. Photo by Younsik Kim

SHOPPING (F)EVER

S even out of ten European online customers buy goods in e-shops outside Europe. This is mainly due to better prices, wider supply or cheaper shipping. Increasingly, they also make decisions about how they can return the goods if they don't like or maybe don't fit the size.

But, of course, that doesn't mean that customers will turn on domestic production. After all, they could close all stone shops with one. But the basis is clear - we need to get through and be able to offer our customers something unique that one does not ridicule.

And exactly such tips have been prepared for you on the following pages. We picked carefully, and we put our hand on the fire for getting something in each of the pre-eminent businesses that won't accrue to you elsewhere. We wish good hunting!

LEST YOU GET BORED

Every time you visit a foreign city, even the best prepared tourist usually comes to the point where he simply no longer knows where he would go and what he would do.

I'm sure you didn't come to Prague to spend all your free time at a hotel, restaurants, or nights in a nearby bar (although this, too, no doubt, guarantees a decent amount of fun and you'll find our magazine many tips for that). You want to go somewhere, but at the same time you don't want to be licked by the somewhat inclement winter weather? Then you just hit the section.

In the following tips we will show you where you can go in Prague without your so-called freezing ass outside. We made a really colorful selection, so it should - if you strike down the items honestly - should guarantee fun for at least a week.

Film Legends Museum is a unique project, the likes of which you will not find in Europe. This is a purely Czech project, which presents Hollywood in detail. The museum introduces visitors to collectibles and pop culture.

It focuses primarily on sculptures, action figures and replicas from movies, TV series, but also games. You can find Film Legends already in two locations.

The museum in Poděbrady was opened in March 2016, followed by a second branch in Prague, which opened its doors to the first visitors in February 2018. The Prague museum takes up more than 1000 m² and there are more than 650 exhibits of various scales – from 1:6 to life size.

The range of exhibits is really varied, so everyone can find something they like.

Children can look forward to an extensive Disney collection where they will see characters from famous fairy-tales – for example Frozen, Cars, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Inside Out, and many others. There are also heroes from modern films – Avengers, Justice League, Harry Potter, Pirates of the Caribbean and countless others. Last but not least, the collection also contains rare relics from movie classics such as Predator, Alien, Terminator, Avatar, Lord of the Rings, and more. The featured games include God of War, The Witcher, Mortal Kombat and Batman: Arkham.

The layout of the collection is based on the needs of the youngest visitors. The exhibits are therefore separated into two rooms, and there is also a spacious children's corner and silent movie projection, where visitors can relax with movie classics. Each of the exhibits is very detailed and hand-painted, and exists in a very limited amount. In all three branches, over 1700 exhibits can now be seen, which makes the museum one of the largest of its kind in the world.

The museum, which is literally a paradise for movie fans of all ages, also hosts weekend programs accompanied by live film characters. Do you want to go there and see everything with your own eyes?

NICE ICE KINGDOM

There's no point in lying to yourself - winter ones aren't not on for a flyout. You have to pack three layers, and then whenever you come into an interior, you suddenly get hot and take something off again (while not losing something). At the same time, though, winter has its own unique poetry.

And they really give us the sweaty summer months. Not to mention the cool when the white stuff finally comes to mind. You'll sit at home, watch TV and eat candy. So we've got some tips for you where you can go in the next cold months.

For a while, you might hate us for it, but as soon as you get a little ragged, you'll appreciate every minute you don't eat on the cough at home. After all, there are no counseling experiences waiting for you there.

ICEFALL OF BRTNÍKY

Brtníky, Mikulášovice

If you are tempted by adventures in the winter landscape and are not deterred by snow drift prodirans, head for the leatni lepadum near the village of Brtníky. You have a real experience in the form of colorful ice cascades that you won't see at another time of year. Ordinarily, water in sandstone rocks is soaked, such as in the rocky cities of Czech Paradise or in Adrspasm - calving rocks, but here it runs down the edge of the rocks, where it forms huge icicles. The effects do not have to increase every year, for what matters is the interplay of frost and melting snow - frost must not come at once, but gradually, so that some of the snow can always drift away and replenish the impact with water. As the water trickles do the rocks, it floats soil, iron and silicate sands, stripping the legumes beautifully from yellow tones to green to brown and even black.

CAVE OF FAIRIES

Křínické údolí, Krásná lípa
www.ceskesvycarsko.cz

Do you know how you get from the present straight into a fairy tale? Near Kyjov in the Křínická Valley, there is a rock overhang with underground spaces in which winter conjures up a carocratic ice decoration each year. You will discover the cavern villa near the village of Kyjov, approximately 6,5 km from Beauty Lipa, where there is also the nearest bus and train stop. Take the Kyjovský Valley up the red tourist mark and after approximately 2 km you will find a turn that will guide you across the River Krinická to its right bank. After the 200 m climb, you can reach the cave. To the depths of the ice kingdom, we recommend going head - to - head. The cave is freely accessible year - round.

SMOKE BOREČ HILL

www.ceskestredohori.ochranaprirody.cz

A warm steam rises from the top of Boreč Hill even in the harsh frost. The temperature difference between leaking air and the surrounding area tends to be up to 16 degrees, leaving no snow around the cracks with leaking air. The warm microclimate suits thermophilous plants that hate temperatures below zero. But the National Natural Monument has nothing to do with the stopwatch, as might seem laissez - faire. The volcanoes of the Czech Midlands have been dead for tens of millions of years, and no active volcanic activity has been demonstrated here. The mystery of what actually occurs inside the hill, explained Prague University Professor Jan Krejčí in 1881 - Boreč is actually a hollow mountain, laced with a complex fissure labyrinth.

BAKERY CAVE

Údolí Říčky, Ochoz u Brna

National Natural Monument cave Bakery, which has been named after the shape of bread kiln, is located in the southern part of the Moravian Beauty and is made up of a 64 - metre - long corridor, which is almost entirely illuminated by daylight penetrating through a 23 - metre - wide and 6 - metre - high entrance portal. The cave Bakery is the most important reindeer hunter housing estate from around 12000 - 15000 years ago. If you go to the Bakery during the winter season, you can admire the icy decoration consisting not only of classic icicles, but mainly of icy, "dwarves" reaching sometimes almost a metre in height.

A PIECE OF BEER'S HISTORY

A piece of Beer's history had begun to brew in the rantings of the ancient. One of our ancestors apparently found a container of cereal he had farmed into and found that the yeast of the mocha had a pleasant taste.

But it was about Slované who introduce his hops after 4,000 years of brewing beer that fundamentally changed the taste of the drink. Nesmirná's popularity of beer on Czech territory has caused the first bishop of St. Vojtěch had already forgotten brewing beer in 993 under the severe penalty of excommunication from the church. Beer continued to brew, however, and today Czechs are the best at drinking beer in the world. For one citizen of our small republic, it's about 160 liters a year. We will subtract - if women and children, then for every adult male it is about a litre a day. In the recent past, Czechs were outnumbered by Belgians and Germans in beer drinking, but after Slovakia's secession we went inexorably to the top of the world rankings. So every visitor has a lot to catch up on!

SINFUL NIGHT LIFE OF PRAGUE CITY

Why will be deluding ourselves. Every good capital, whose streets pulsate with life, must have beside restaurants, bars, cafes and shopping centers also (as the novelists say) the houses of love. And even Prague is no exception. But before we go into its streets, let's make a small historic revision.

It is no longer the rule that these places are for desperate individuals. Time progressed. When was the phenomenon of night clubs or prostitution itself actually born? Well, not for anything they say that it's the oldest profession of the world. It is probable that prostitution has evolved from religious belief and rituals which were held to celebrate the goddess of fertility in the Middle-Age. In the 19th century it was strongly developed and reached all segments of society from politics to high art (for example Vincent Van Gogh lived for years with a Flemish prostitute).

We know that it's not easy to find the right company in which you can feel natural and comfortable. Indeed, there are lots of them and if you had to visit them all, it would cost you the whole wealth.

For this reason, we are showing few short "best of" tips in the following pages. We guarantee that you definitely won't be bored. The ride full of excitement and beautiful women is awaiting!

6. THINGS YOU MUST KNOW ABOUT PRAGUERS IN ADVANCE!

1) PRAGUERS ARE ALWAYS IN A BAD MOOD

When there is someone with a grumpy expression that points out that he would like to kill you, don't take it personally. Prague residents are always in a hurry and still seem to be in a bad mood. In short, it works like that here. But otherwise they are fine!

2) THEY DON'T WAIT FOR THE GREEN LIGHT

You can also recognize true Praguers by ignoring the traffic lights. In short, he is looking for every possible space that will be offered to him on the road, and when he sees the opportunity, he immediately crosses the street. Red, green, it doesn't matter.

3) THEY DRINK BEER, A LOT OF BEER

The Czech Republic is well known for its excellent beer, and the Czechs have certainly never concealed themselves by being able to „send a few pieces“ to themselves. But if you with such a Prager for a beer, don't be fooled. „Going out for one beer“ is really just a phrase. Every Czech drinks an average of 142 liters of beer per year, while during an average session, the trained Prager handles some 8 pieces and is not even out of his breath.

4) THEY MUST ALWAYS PLAN SOMETHING

You will probably feel like lazy, because the Praguers have - it seems - planned perhaps every minute of the day. And this also applies to weekends. It can only be Monday morning and the right Prager already knows what he will do on the weekend.

5) THEY ARE OBSESSED WITH CARS

Although Prague has one of the best transport links in Europe, if we talk about public transport (train, metro, tram, bus), Prague citizens are still obsessed with driving everywhere. And even though they have to wait in the traffic jams for an hour.

6) THEY DON'T SEEM, BUT THEY HELP

Praguers are vigilant because someone keeps putting them something on the street or wants money from them. And this is really annoying them. Therefore, when you stop them, they immediately go into defense mode and can look very dull. Don't let this scare you. As soon as he realizes that you just want some advice, they change completely and almost leads you to the place. They don't seem that, but they're sweeties!
